Expressions of Interest are called for PCQ PUBLICITY OFFICER

The executive committee is seeking expressions of interest from those interested in filling this position. The Publicity Officer will be required to liaise with and oversee our marketing consultant (once engaged) as well as assist with producing the online version of the newsletter and administer the PCQ Facebook page. It will also be necessary to liaise with current sponsors and seek out new sponsorship agreements for the association.

The Publicity Officer is a member of the executive committee which generally meet once a month at the PCQ office as well as phone meetings in between each face to face meeting.

Ideally anyone considering this position would have some experience in this area and be available to attend the above meetings where possible.
