

PRESS RELEASE

Pony Club and Equestrian Australia announce Dual Membership Rebate

If you are a current riding PCAQ Member aged between 12 and 16, who currently is or would like to also be an EA Member, you will receive a $50 rebate when you complete your EA Membership.

Pony Club Australia (PCA) in conjunction with Equestrian Australia (EA) announced a Joint Participation Initiative made possible through the Australian Sports Commission (ASC) participation funding – PCA/EA Dual Member Rebate Scheme.

The PCA/EA Dual Member Rebate Scheme is a program jointly developed by PCA and EA to provide a benefit to riding members of both organisations. The PCA/EA Dual Member Rebate Scheme is a program designed to increase participation of riders in both organisations within the age bracket of 12 to 16 years old.

To be eligible for the rebate members must be;

- . Hold a current PCAQ Riding Membership
- . Applying for an EA/PCA Junior Dual Membership
- . Aged between 12 and 16 (as at 1st January of that year)

PCA/EA Dual Member Rebate Scheme can be accessed through the EA Online Membership Site, equnect. All you need to do is ensure your PCAQ Membership is current, register for equnect via EA Qld Website, and complete the membership form ensuring you select the EA/PCA Junior Dual Member Category and indicate membership of Pony Club in Other Organisations.

Your EA Membership Application will be held as pending while PCAQ confirms your Pony Club Membership. Once confirmed by PCAQ, you will be able to complete your EA Membership by paying the fee which will have your $50 rebate already deducted.
